I WELCOME TO THE EHF FINALS WOMEN 2024

WHICH TEAM WILL LIFT THE EHF EUROPEAN LEAGUE TROPHY IN GRAZ?

It is with great pleasure that we welcome all media representatives to Graz and the Raiffeisen Sportpark, home of the EHF Finals Women 2024. After the success of the 2023 edition, the venue in Austria's second-largest city plays host to four thrilling handball games again on 11 and 12 May 2024 for the season-ending tournament of the EHF European League Women 2023/24. The line-up for the EHF Finals Women 2024 features four teams from three different countries, who all had to triumph over some of Europe's strongest opponents to get here.

The first semi-final on Saturday afternoon is a national derby between two Romanian teams. Still unbeaten coming into the EHF Finals, CS Gloria 2018 BN are enjoying an excellent campaign in what is only the young club's second European season. In 2019/20, their journey in the competition's predecessor EHF Cup ended in the quarter-finals, so they have already bettered that achievement.

Their opponents H.C. Dunarea Braila are the only team at the EHF Finals which started the 2023/24 season in the first qualification round, meaning they have played more matches than any of the three other teams present in Graz. They previously reached the quarter-finals of the EHF European League in 2020/21, and the semi-finals of the former Challenge Cup 16 years ago.

In the second match on Saturday evening, Storhamar Handball Elite enter the first semi-final in the club's European history, after they appeared in the quarter-finals of various competitions in the past. They also were in the knockout phase of the EHF Champions League Women as recent as a year ago, underlining the strength the Norwegian side bring to the court.

They are up against Neptunes Nantes, who were the winners of the inaugural EHF Finals Women 2021 when competing under a different name. The only contenders in Graz this year that have competed in all four EHF European League seasons so far, the French side are eager to replicate their run to the title from three years ago.

Those four teams eye the trophy as the stage is set for another captivating weekend of handball in Graz. We wish all media representatives best of luck for their coverage. We pride ourselves with an excellent cooperation with media covering EHF competitions, both on club and national team level. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Enjoy the EHF Finals Women 2024!

GREATNESS IS EARNED
ALL IN

I ALL IN – GREATNESS IS EARNED

SEASONAL CAMPAIGN FOR EHF EUROPEAN LEAGUE

The 2023/24 seasonal campaign for the EHF European League carries the slogan ‘ALL IN – Greatness is earned’ to underline that success in the EHF European League can only come through hard work, dedication, and relentless effort.

The central idea behind the campaign is that there are no givens in the EHF European League. Only the players and teams who are willing to go all in will be able to earn greatness. ‘ALL IN – Greatness is earned’ highlights the work ethic of the players, who are pushing themselves to the limit each week in pursuit of glory. It inspires players and fans alike to embrace the journey that comes with striving for greatness. It also showcases the league as one of Europe’s top-level competitions. The official hashtag of the campaign is #Allin.

I ALL EYES ON THE TROPHY

SPECIFICALLY DESIGNED AWARD AWAITS THE CHAMPIONS

The EHF Finals Women return to the Raiffeisen Sportpark in Graz, Austria’s second-largest city, for the second straight year in 2024. On Saturday 11 May, CS Gloria 1818 BN meet C.S. Dunarea Braila in an all-Romanian semi-final, and Norwegian side Storhamar Handball Elite take on Neptunes Nantes, the French winners of the inaugural 2021 title, for a place in the final on Sunday 12 May.

The champions will receive a trophy which has been specifically designed for the EHF European League. Developed by the Oiko Design Office agency in Barcelona, the trophy displays a goal, as the main objective of the sport, and reflects the dynamic movement of a ball hitting the target. The net formed in the shape of a shield symbolises handball as a team sport.

I IMPORTANT REGULATIONS

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A MATCH AT THE EHF FINAL WOMEN 2024 ENDS IN A DRAW

All matches of the EHF Finals Women 2024 shall be played in 2 x 30 minutes.

If a semi-final match or the final ends in a draw, there will be a five-minute break followed by one extra time of 2 x 5 minutes; there will be a one-minute break at half-time for the changeover of teams.

If the third-place match ends in a draw, there shall be no extra time; the match will be decided directly by penalty throws.

If penalty throws are needed to decide the match, the procedure is as follows:

- Only players (incl. goalkeepers) who are listed on the match report and are not suspended or disqualified at the end of the playing time are entitled to participate at the penalty throws.

- At the technical meeting the teams will be informed at which goal the penalty throws will be taken. The team taking the first penalty throw shall be determined by the referees by drawing lots. The team winning the draw may choose whether it wishes to throw first or last.

- Prior to the penalty throws, each team shall name five by handing the referees a list of numbers. These players shall then take one throw each until a decision (a winner) is reached, alternating with their opponents. Each team is free to determine the sequence in which throwers will take their throws.

- The goalkeepers may be freely selected from the match report and exchanged in accordance with the rules of the game. Goalkeepers may take throws and throwers may perform as goalkeepers.

- If the scores are equal after the first round of penalty throws, it shall be continued until a decision is reached. In the second round, the other team shall start. Again, five players shall be named who are eligible to play (the players named before may be named once again).

- In the second round, a decision is reached when a goal difference arises after both teams have taken one throw each.

- Serious infractions committed during penalty throws shall be sanctioned by disqualification. If a thrower is disqualified or suffers an injury, an eligible substitute player shall be supplementary named.

- While the throws are being taken, only the player taking the throw, the current goalkeeper and the referees may enter the respective half of the playing court.

- If the number of eligible players falls below five, players may be named to take a second throw in the same round.
