- Meeting in MOTW of round 5, Krim Mercator Ljubljana and Brest Bretagne Handball are both hoping to kick-start their EHF Champions League Women season: Krim have won one of their five matches so far; Brest two.

- The only previous meetings between Krim and Brest happened in the CL 2019/20 main round; Brest clearly won both duels in Slovenia (29:25) and France (37:26).

- The best scorers of both sides are Montenegrin internationals: Jovanka Radicevic (Krim) and Djurdjina Jaukovic (Brest) have both scored 29 goals; Russian international Daria Dmitrieva (Krim) is also on 29.

- Radicevic is close to becoming the all-time CL top scorer; before the MOTW, she is on 1,007 goals – just nine short of the record of 1,016 goals set by Hungarian great Anita Görbicz; CSM Bucuresti's Cristina Neagu is next in line, with 940 goals.

- Brest have two more Montenegrin players in their squad: Itana Grbic arrived from FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria this season; Tatjana Brnovic is on loan from Rostov-Don but will miss the MOTW due to an ankle injury.

- All four Montenegrin players were with Buducnost before – and were then coached, also at the national team, by current Krim coach Dragan Adzic.

- Meanwhile, Adzic is coach of the Slovenian national team; Brest's Pablo Morel also has national team experience, as assistant coach of Gabon's men's team.

- Two Polish internationals will face in MOTW before joining forces at the Women's EHF EURO 2022: Aleksandra Rosiak (Krim) and Monika Kobylinska (Brest).

- Brest's Pauletta Foppa, Pauline Coatanea, Alicia Toublanc, and team captain Coralie Lassource won Olympic gold in 2021 with France, beating Russia with Krim's Daria Dmitrieva in the final in Tokyo.

- Krim's Allison Pineau played for Brest in 2016-19.

- Former CL top scorer and current Győr player Ana Gros played for both Krim and Brest in the past.

- Krim play their 28th CL season; Brest their sixth.

- Krim won the CL twice – in 2001 and 2003 – but have not been past the quarter-finals since the introduction of the EHF FINAL4 format in the 2013/14 season.

- Brest have qualified for the EHF FINAL4 once: in 2021, when they even made it to the final but lost against Vipers Kristiansand.

- Injury report – Krim: N/A; Brest: Tatjana Brnovic (ankle).
