INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the EHF EURO 2024 qualifiers, the beginning of the journey towards the 16th edition of the Men's EHF European Handball Championship, hosted by Germany from 10 to 28 January 2024.

The qualifiers see the ambitions of 32 nations put to the test as they compete for the 20 remaining places at the final tournament. Eight groups of four teams will be played, competing over six rounds between October 2022 and April 2023, where the top two teams from each group and the four best third-place teams will book their ticket to Germany, joining the host nation and the three medallists from EHF EURO 2022, Sweden, Spain and Denmark.

The four teams with their spots at the final tournament already assured will compete in the EHF EURO Cup, ensuring they are exposed to high-quality competition during the six national team weeks reserved for the Qualifiers phase.

This qualifier campaign sees the introduction of a new project, a highlight match of the round in both the EHF EURO Qualifiers and EHF EURO Cup.

The highlight match, akin to the Match of the Week in the EHF Champions League, will see English-language commentary and a mobile reporter on site for extended digital coverage.

For you, the media, the EHF Media and Communications Department has prepared this media guide to provide a comprehensive overview of all 36 teams participating. It contains an extensive overview of all records of players and teams, as well as head-to-head statistics for the six Qualifiers groups, tournament history and media contacts at each of the competing national federations.

It is clear for all to see that the overall level of competition in Europe is not only rising but there is a strength in depth, making the upcoming qualifiers particularly interesting.

During this campaign, nations such as Italy, Romania and Israel will be targeting a return to the big time for the first time in over 20 years and the more established teams in their group will be looking over their shoulders.

Following an outstanding summer for their under 18 and under 20 sides, Faroe Islands will turn their attention to making a similar breakthrough with the senior men's squad, competing in the wide-open group 4, alongside Austria, Ukraine and Romania.

Buoyed by their Qualifiers to the World Championship, Belgium will have an eye on making a name for themselves in group 5, facing 2020 silver medallists Croatia, the increasingly impressive Netherlands and another ambitious side Greece.

Throughout the Qualifiers phase, the EHF Media and Communications Department will continually update the media with results and news relating to the tournament. However, if you have any questions or queries, the department is only an email away, so please feel free to get in touch with the team in Vienna on media@eurohandball.com.

HERE TO PLAY

The Men's EHF EURO 2024 in Germany will be colourful, dynamic, inviting – there is no doubt about it.

The championship's logo and its campaign are the first noticeable signs for this, underlined by the main claim: "HERE TO PLAY!" Welcome to Germany, to play handball and experience much more.

The German Handball Federation unveiled the campaign and the logo which has been developed in cooperation with the Berlin-based agency Styleheads.

"The presentation of the logo and the campaign is an important first step on the way to this major sport event. This will finally make us visible for the handball family and the entire sports world," says Mark Schober, Chairman of the Board of the German Handball Federation.

"Of course, 2024 is still a long way to go, but we have been working with full dedication already a long time for this tournament which should set standards that stretch beyond handball."

Martin Hausleitner, EHF Secretary General, says: "We can fully identify ourselves with this claim and I believe the same will hold true for all fans and players. It serves as a good explanation for the journey to the Men's EHF EURO 2024 as well as to explain the reason why we are all there. We're really happy that such a fitting logo and claim has been found."

A festival for all sports fans

"The basis for the logo design is the place where everything is decided in handball and where emotions arise: the lines of the court. Those were transformed into the compact shape of a ball that conveys the dynamics of the sport," says Thomas Zimmermann, Board Member for Marketing and Communication in the German Handball Federation.

"The six colors of the visual communication are based on the basic colors of all European national flags to show that we are going to celebrate an international, cross-border festival with all European sports fans."

The heart of the communication is the claim "HERE TO PLAY!" This is activated in several variants in order to convey the different facets of the Men's EHF EURO 2024 and the individual locations.

HOW TO FOLLOW

The road to the Men's EHF EURO 2024 in Germany opens this week as 32 teams are set to play rounds 1 and 2 of the qualifiers, while the EHF EURO Cup 2024 throws off, too. Here is how to stay informed during the action-packed days.

The start of the Men's EHF EURO 2024 Qualifiers and the EHF EURO Cup 2024 makes for an impressive schedule of 36 matches to be played across Europe from Wednesday through Sunday.

A total of 32 national teams throw off their qualifying campaign this week, with further rounds to be played in March and April 2023.

In the end, 20 of them will earn the coveted berth at the 10-28 January 2024 final tournament, joining the four teams that have already qualified directly: hosts Germany and EHF EURO 2022 medallists Sweden (gold), Spain (silver), and Denmark (bronze).

Those four teams will also be in action this week, as they are contesting the EHF EURO Cup.

So, a bumper week of action coming up – and all of it can be enjoyed across the various EHF channels.

All matches will be streamed live and free (after one-time registration) on EHFTV. The platform allows fans to watch up to four games at once using the multi-screen feature. Geo-restrictions might apply in areas where matches are broadcast by domestic TV stations; detailed information can be found in the 'match info' links in the overview below.

The dedicated EHF EURO social media channels on Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook will closely follow all the action with near-live video clips, the best photos, and lots of exclusive coverage.

New in this week's coverage are the Highlight Matches, following the successful Match of the Week concept in the EHF Champions League. For each round of the qualification phase, there will be one Highlight Match from the EHF EURO Qualifiers and one from the EHF EURO Cup: those matches receive extensive coverage on the EHF EURO digital channels, with a mobile reporter on site providing exclusive behind-the-scenes and on-court content.

Each day, the live blog on eurohandball.com will be your guide to what is happening, with real-time updates, the best social media posts, photo galleries, reviews, and opinions.

For a more detailed look at each game, keep an eye on the EHF EURO 2024 section on eurohandball.com for all the latest review, news stories, and match analysis.

EHF EURO CUP

The EHF EURO Cup is a series of matches taking place in the format of a league with home and away matches to be organised and hosted prior to the EHF EURO by each host federation as well as the best ranked teams of the previous EHF EUROs depending on the number of host federations.

The total number of participants is always four teams and for the EHF EURO Cup 2024 it is the EHF EURO 2024 host Germany together with the Men's EHF EURO 2022 medallists (Sweden gold, Spain silver and Denmark bronze).

The playing dates of the EHF EURO Cup 2024 follows the playing schedule of the EHF EURO 2024 Qualifiers.

The EHF EURO Cup 2024 is the third edition of this competition. While Spain won the first tournament in 2019, Hungary triumphed two years later and their captain Bence Bánhidi was handed over the trophy at the EHF EURO 2022 final tournament draw.

EHF EURO 2024 HOST & VENUES

From Dusseldorf to Cologne seems only a small distance, but a whole lot of handball will be played between the Men's EHF EURO 2024 opener in the Merkur Spiel-Arena in Dusseldorf on 10 January and the final in the Lanxess Arena in Cologne on 28 January.

RELEGATION ROUND

While 26 of the 32 teams to contest the EHF EURO 2024 qualifiers arrived at this last stage on the path to the final tournament based on their participation in the EHF EURO 2022 or the last Qualifiers stage for the event in Hungary and Slovakia, six came from the relegation round.

Four teams progressed from the relegation round as winners of their respective ties, while another two have joined the final stage of qualifiers due to the EHF decision to ban Russian and Belarusian teams.

Latvia, Belgium, Turkey and Finland were the four winners in the relegation round, with Latvia enjoying the most resounding victory – an aggregate result of 72:55 against Bulgaria. Turkey won 64:54 on aggregate against Cyprus, Belgium defeated Luxembourg 59:53 and Finland won 52:45 against Georgia.

After initially being eliminated due to their losses in the relegation round in January, Luxembourg and Georgia were later chosen as the teams to replace Russia and Belarus in the last stage of qualifiers, based on an internal ranking of the four losing sides in the relegation round. Both Luxembourg and Georgia secured a draw in one of the legs against their opponents, while Bulgaria and Cyprus lost both legs of their ties.
