- CSKA have 23 points on their account after 13 matches, one point ahead of Györ; the group winners will face SG BBM Bietigheim in the play-off, while the second team takes on Krim
- CSKA have won 11 group matches so far - most in the CL
- a draw in the final group match is enough for CSKA to finish on top of the group in their first CL season
- CSKA's only defeat so far was 26:25 away to Odense
- to date, the only CL winners from Russia were Zvezda Zvenigorod in 2008, also in their maiden season
- Györ have an unbeaten run of 50 CL matches since a 28:22 loss to CSM Bucuresti on 26 January 2018
- this record-breaking series includes 43 victories and seven draws - four of which took place this this season, including a 27:27 against CSKA in the opening round
- Györ's last home defeat occurred on 25 October 2015, losing 26:21 in the main round against FC Midtjylland
- Györ's previous match against a Russian team before the 27:27 against CSKA was the DELO EHF FINAL4 2019 gold medal match against Rostov, winning 25:24 in Budapest
- Györ are playing in their 18th CL season, they made it at least to the quarter-final 15x, to the semi-final 13x and since 2014 missed out the EHF FINAL4 only once in 2015
- in the all-time ranking, Györ are on top with 170 victories, 19 draws and 40 defeats in 229 matches
- Györ are the only women's club with five CL trophies and the first to win a hat-trick of titles (2017, 2018 and 2019). Eduarda Amorim Taleska and Anita Görbicz have all five titles
- Amorim and Görbicz have both been named IHF Player of the Year in the past, while their Norwegian teammate Stine Oftedal currently holds that title
- Györ coach Gábor Danyi will leave the defending champions after this season and join Hungarian side Siófok. Former coach Ambros Martin will return to the club he won four EHF Champions League trophies with before leaving to coach Rostov-Don and eventually the Russian national team
- eight Györ players were part of the EHF EURO 2020 final, four Norwegian winners and four runners-up from France
- four CSKA players were 2016 Olympic winners with Russia: Anna Sedoykina, Marina Sudakova, Ekaterina Ilina and Daria Dmitrieva
- Norwegian Amanda Kurtovic left Györ in December, joining European League club Kastamonu on loan
- two cornerstones of the CSKA squad are currently ruled out with knee injuries: team captain and Olympic champion Dmitrieva and top talent Elena Mikhaylichenko
- CSKA's Danish coach Jan Leslie had coached Rostov from 2014 until 2016 and had an impressive run in the 2015/16 season with eleven wins and only one draw in the group phase and main round, but then Rostov were eliminated by eventual winners CSM Bucuresti in the quarter-finals. The following season, Leslie left the club as Rostov missed out on the main round
