- This Match of the Week is the seventh duel between SG Flensburg-Handewitt and MOL-Pick Szeged in EHF Champions League history.
- Flensburg won four of the previous six matches against Szeged, including all three home games.
- Szeged's only win came in the 2018/19 group phase.
- The teams first met in the Last 16 of the 2010/11 season, when Flensburg won both encounters.
- Szeged had their path to the EHF FINAL4 also blocked by a German team in 2013/14 and 2014/15, when THW Kiel won in the Last 16 and quarter-final, respectively.
- Szeged stumbled on the last hurdle before the EHF FINAL4 two more times, losing in the quarter-final to Paris Saint-Germain HB in 2017 and to HC Vardar 1961 in 2019.
- Szeged's last victory in an away game against a German team was their 37:35 win over Rhein-Neckar Löwen in the group phase of the 2017/18 season.
- Lifting the EHF Cup trophy in 2014, Szeged became the only non-German winners between 2003 and 2019 of this former competition (now: EHF European League).

- Flensburg won the EHF Cup in 1997 and are the only team having won four different EHF club competitions: EHF Cup, Cup Winners' Cup, City Cup, and CL.
- Flensburg have made it to the EHF FINAL4 only once, in 2014, but won the title right away, with current head coach Maik Machulla as assistant of Ljubomir Vranjes.
- Szeged's Serbian wing Bogdan Radivojevic won the CL with Flensburg in 2014; he also played for Rhein-Neckar Löwen (2017-19) before joining Szeged last season.
- Two more Szeged players have won the CL with another club: Jonas Källman (with Ciudad Real in 2006, 2008 and 2009) and Joan Canellas (with Vardar in 2017).
- Joan Canellas also played in the German Bundesliga in the past: for Hamburg (2013/14) and Kiel (2014-16).
- Szeged lost their first three matches this CL season before defeating Elverum Handball (36:27) last week.
- So far Flensburg are the only team to have beaten group A leaders Lomza Vive Kielce (31:30 in round 1), but the German side later lost away to Vardar (31:26) and drew at home with HC Meshkov Brest (29:29).
- Szeged are in their 19th CL season, Flensburg in their 16th - 30 years after the German club was founded.
- In their 15 CL seasons so far, Flensburg have made it to at least the quarter-final 12 times.
