- Before the final round of the EHF Champions League Men group phase, Lomza Vive Kielce and SG Flensburg-Handewitt share the lead in group A with 19 points each.

- Flensburg won the reverse fixture 31:30, so a draw in Thursday's Match of the Week would be enough for the German side to finish as group winners.

- The group winners face HC PPD Zagreb in the play-offs, the runners-up play RK Celje Pivovarna Laško.

- Kielce have won all six home matches this season, Flensburg won three of four away matches they played.

- The head-to-head comparison after five duels is fully in balance: one win for Kielce, one for Flensburg, three draws; and both teams scored 144 goals.

- Kielce's only win against Flensburg came in the return leg of the 2015/16 quarter-final (29:28), when the Polish side were on their way to winning the title.

- Both Kielce and Flensburg won the CL once.

- Kielce played at the EHF FINAL4 four times (2013, 2015, 2016, 2019), Flensburg once (2014).

- Four players of Flensburg's 2014 squad are still (or again) part of the team: Jakob Heintl (currently injured), Lasse Svan, Jim Gottfridsson and Hampus Wanne.

- Krzysztof Lijewski is the only Kielce player from 2016 still with the team; Igor Karacic and Alex Dujshebaev also won the CL in the past - with HC Vardar 1961.

- Goalkeepers Andreas Wolff (Kielce) and Benjamin Buric (Flensburg) share a common past: When Wolff left HSG Wetzlar in 2016 to join THW Kiel, his successor was Buric. Wolff went from Kiel to Kielce in 2019, the same year Buric joined Flensburg.

- Wolff, who turned 30 on Wednesday, played together with Flensburg line player Johannes Golla in the German national team at the World Championship 2021.

- Six players involved in the MOTW also met in the WCh semi-final: Kielce's Spanish trio Alex Dujshebaev, Dani Dujshebaev and Angel Fernandez lost to Flensburg's Danish players Simon Hald, Lasse Svan and Mads Mensah 35:33; Denmark ended up winning gold, Spain bronze.

- Flensburg's Swedish players Gottfridsson and Wanne won silver at the WCh and were part of the All-star Team.

- Svan belongs to the rare group of players who won the Olympic Games, World Championship, EHF EURO, EHF Champions League, and EHF Cup Winners' Cup.

- In the all-time CL standings, Flensburg are fourth with 293 points from 229 matches (including 137 wins, 19 draws and 73 defeats).

- Kielce are ranked ninth with 235 points from 191 matches (109 victories, 17 draws, 65 defeats).
