- the first MOTW of the new EHF Champions League Women season is the re-match of the 2021 final, won by Vipers 34:28. It was the first CL trophy for the Norwegian side, who defended their title in 2022 by beating Győr

- Vipers beat Brest's French rivals and current French champions Metz in the 2022 semi-final of the EHF FINAL4 in Budapest 33:27 – but overall have a negative balance against French clubs (seven victories, eight defeats)

- Viper's last CL defeat was at the hands of Metz in the 2021/22 group phase, followed by a six-win run to the winners' podium

- in the last four seasons, Vipers qualified three times for the EHF FINAL4, while Brest had their debut in Budapest in 2021

- both sides are playing their sixth CL season

- last season, while Vipers beat Győr in the final, Brest were eliminated by the Hungarian side in the quarter-finals. In 2021, Brest ended Győr's long winning streak in the semi-final of the EHF FINAL4 – and became the first French team ever to make it to the final of the CL Women

- Vipers have added Anna Vyakhireva (from Rostov), Oceane Sercien Ugolin (from Krim) and Jamina Roberts (from Sävehof) to their squad over the summer, but lost six-time CL champion Nora Mørk to Esbjerg

- French international Sercien Ugolin is 2020 Olympic champion and EHF EURO 2020 silver medallist, and will face a huge number of national teammates in the MOTW including Pauletta Foppa, Pauline Coatanea, Alicia Toublanc and Brest's team captain Coralie Lassource

- Brest will re-start in the CL without their prolific goalkeeper Sandra Toft, the current IHF Female Player of the Year, who transferred to record champions Győr

- in addition, Brest's Serbian line player Sladjana Pop-Lazic ended her career and world and Olympic champion Kalidiatou Niakaté transferred to CSM Bucuresti

- for the new season, Brest count on three Montenegrin players: Itana Grbic arrives from FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria and Tatjana Brnovic is on loan from Rostov-Don. They join their national teammate Djurdjina Jaukovic

- while Vipers won the CL and Norwegian championship last season, Brest did not win a single title, as Metz beat them again in the French league

- Sidelined: Vilde Jonassen, Martine Karigstad Andersen, Karine Dahlum, Marta Tomac (all Vipers), Aissatou Kouyate (Brest)*
